The first will be to you too. I spent Saturday night in Millville; Howard

Coming after me yesterday^{PM} And I least I spent the night with Mrs Spira, a widow about Mamas age. We were invited over to James Stones' mother to a little fruit spread. Ha, ha, and I met ^(from N.Y.) a widow, also a butcher. Will tell you all about every thing when you come.
Am so glad it is a little warmer! This a m. and will "glader" when you come.

Monday is such a bad day for it never brings me a letter from my only one.

Darling the mail is ready to go, so I must say good bye with a soul^{ly} heart full of love. I'm ever yours

Lillian

Please bring your full love when you come and you may have much work.
